Friends of the Georgia Museum of Agriculture and Historic Village

Supporting the GMA's efforts to educate and promote Georgia's rich connections to the past, present and future of agriculture

Since 1976, the Georgia Museum of Agriculture and Historic Village has been committed to promoting Georgia's rich connections to the past, present and future of agriculture through historic interpretation, educational programming and special events.

This commitment has continued to strengthen since 2010 when the Museum began operating as part of the Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College.

Your membership as a Friend of the Museum provides vital support to achieving this mission. Thank you for your generosity and commitment.
